

You(th) Have Rights

understanding giving false information to the police

Is it illegal to lie to police?

Yes. It is against the law to give a false name, birth date, or identification.

What can happen if I get caught giving false information to police?

Youth can be given a citation or petition to go to juvenile court. Giving false information to police can be added to other offenses or charged on its own. Giving false information to police is a misdemeanor.

Giving police the name of another real person is a gross misdemeanor. That means it can be punished by up to 90 days in jail and/or $1,000 fine. The prosecutor may decide a diversion program is the best way to address the situation.

For more information, go to www.tubman.org.

Get Help: 612.825.0000

www.tubman.org

Give Help: 612.825.3333

ABOUT TUBMAN: Safety. Hope. Healing. Each year, Tubman helps nearly 25,000 people of all ages, genders, and cultural backgrounds who are facing relationship violence, sexual assault, exploitation, homelessness, addiction, mental health challenges or other forms of trauma. We provide safe shelter, legal services, mental and chemical health counseling, youth programs and community education.

Sources: University of St. Thomas Community Justice Project, Homeless Youth Handbook, Minn Stat 609.506